This statement is required of all international applicants to the University of Massachusetts Boston applying for a student visa (F1).

The information contained in this form does not affect admissions but will be used to determine the university's ability to provide visa sponsorship. Please read all sections carefully and include all required documentation. Make sure that your name and your date of birth are correctly listed and spelled on both your application to UMass Boston, as well as on the Declaration and Certification of Finances form. Your name must appear exactly as it appears on your passport.

In order for UMass Boston to provide you with visa sponsorship, you must have funding available to meet the above estimated expenses. Be aware that financial requirements of the university, changing costs, or other circumstances may require adjustments in tuition and fees. You will also be required to show proof of financial support when applying for your student visa. Therefore, be sure to maintain a copy of financials for this purpose.

> If your spouse will accompany you to the U.S., add $4,500.00 to the total expenses.

> For dependent children, add $2,000.00 per child.

TRANSFERRING YOUR I-20 TO UMASS BOSTON

If you are currently studying in the U.S., you must provide the following documents: copies of your visa and passport photo pages and I-94 record, and a copy of your I-20 or DS-2019. You must submit a Transfer Verification Form for Non-Immigrant Students signed by your P/DSO at the institution you are currently attending or have most recently attended. You may download this form by visiting our web site at www.umb.edu and clicking on the Undergraduate Admissions link.
