

Students in the College of Management:

You must complete one diversity course; it can have either a United States focus or an international focus. Note that the college also requires you to complete an "international management" course chosen from a list of courses that they have determined.